

2010 Clay County Agricultural Fair Announces...

Scholastic Chess Tournament

Today the Clay County Agricultural Fair announced a new competitive contest for the 2010 fair, the Scholastic Chess Tournament. All area students are invited to participate in the chess tournament on Saturday, April 10, from 10:00 – 2:30 p.m. at the Clay County Fairgrounds Community Stage. Tournament participants receive FREE admission to the Fair and every contestant receives an award for participation. Parents can order admission tickets in advance from the Fair's website or pay at the gate.

Prerequisites are knowledge of chess rules (especially check, checkmate, and stalemate) and a desire to meet other students who share a love for this challenging activity. Participants play 4 games and compete with students in their respective grade divisions (K-2, 3-5, 6-8, and 9-12). Registration forms and $10.00 entry fee must be received by Saturday, April 3rd. Prizes will be awarded to individual division winners.

For registration procedures, forms, and tournament rules, visit <http://www.claycountyfair.org> and click on “Competitions”, “Contest”, and “Chess Tourney” or select ‘Tournaments’ at the organizer’s website: www.mychessclub.us When choosing “by-mail” option, registration forms and checks (made payable to “MyChessClub.US ”) should be sent to: Scott Pfeiffer, 10337 Agave Road; Jacksonville, FL 32246-8601 Or use PayPal online via the link from www.mychessclub.us Tournament Site will be at
