

America's Most Beautiful Clown...inside and out...Pickles Da Clown is a beautiful, nurturing clown that is treasured everywhere she goes. She has been entertaining children since the age of thirteen...that's over thirty years. In 2009 Pickles performed at fairs and festivals in eight states. At every venue, Pickles acquired new fans!

Pickles can be found roaming about the fairgrounds greeting everyone, handing out Smarties candy and is always ready to pose with your family for a photo. Pickles also twists oodles of balloon to the delight of many children.

Pickles serves up an exciting stage show of music favorites like oldies rock, country and gospel. She even manages to squeeze in a bit of illusion. For the young at heart, Pickles always brings along her puppet friend Baby Lizzie to share the stage. Pickles stage show has exiting audience participation and prizes. You never know what tricks Pickles has up here sleeve! From the songs she sings to the smiles she makes...Pickles is ALWAYS the icing on the cake! For more information about Pickles...visit her website: www.picklesdaclown.com